this tiny cafe has everything. Overpriced breakfast items, modern bathrooms, hipsters galore, and a cheery staff that might be held captive by their overbearing managers. (Please read that in the voice of Stephan from SNL.) It's quick, affordable, and good. And they have a drive-through.

Hours: Thurs 9pm - 1am

The Strand Theater

3544 Troost Ave.
Hours: Thurs 10am - 10pm
Fri, Sat 10am - 10pm
If sleazy old men are your thing, this is the place for you. This down and dirty establishment resides in a dicey part of town complete with some of the cheapest hookers around. Patrons enjoy loads of porn on the big screen (which is really a table-cloth-sized piece of vinyl) and recommend shoes that you don't mind sticking to the floor. To quote an article from a local publication:
"The Strand does have its own peculiar fragrance, the smell of old arousal. It's a suite of disinfectant, bodily fluids, cheap aftershave — and popcorn."

We do hope you find this list useful.

Cheers from the City of Fountains Sisters!
